

Charrette Week Participant Feedback

As you may know the City of Rehoboth Beach is holding a week of gathering public input regarding an update to the city's zoning code. The zoning code most importantly affects the physical character of our buildings and establishes a procedure and requirements for anyone wanting to make a change to properties and buildings within the city limits.

IF YOU ARE NOT ABLE TO ATTEND ANY OF THE MEETINGS....

...please consider letting us know any of your initial insights that we should know about. You can save this form and send to Joe Kohl of Dover, Kohl & Partners or send a scan/photograph of handwritten responses by using this email link: jkohl@doverkohl.com

1. In only one word, how would you describe Rehoboth Beach Today?

2. In only one word, how would you describe the Rehoboth Beach of the future?

3. Have you had any recent experience using the current zoning code?
(skip down to question #6, on page 2, if you answered "no.")

(Click or circle one)

Yes?

No?

4. What was the nature of your project, if you answered YES above?

Existing house/building modification? New construction? Other?

5. How was your experience using or understanding the zoning code? ... and the project approval process?

Find more details, as the project progresses at:
rehobothbeachde.gov/charretteweek or use the QR code to the left.

After charrette week, as the work continues, there will be updates to reviewed and other opportunities for comments.

Charrette Week Participant Feedback

Page 2

6. What would you like us to know regarding the physical character of Downtown and the culture of the place? (you can use additional sheet(s))

7. What additional questions / suggestions do you have?

Find more details, as the project progresses at:
rehobothbeachde.gov/charretteweek or use the QR code to the left.

After charrette week, as the work continues, there will be updates to reviewed and other opportunities for comments.